FORMAL STATEMENT COMES FROM BRYAN

In Response to Criticism of Proposed Treaty

DEFENDS THE CLAUSE

Expressing "Sincere Regret" of the United States That Friendly Relations Between Countries Had Been Marred.

Washington, June 22.—Criticism of the proposed treaty to settle the differences between the United States and Colombia over the separation of Panama brought a formal statement tonight from Secretary Bryan defending the clause expressing "sincere regret" on the part of the United States that anything should have occurred to mar friendly relations between the two countries. The expression "honest regret" Mr. Bryan said, was used in the memorandum drafted during the Taft administration on which the present negotiations as well as those which previously had failed were based.

Despite opposition in the Senate, Mr. Bryan was hopeful today that the treaty would be favorably reported and ratified. Members of the Foreign Relations committee said that correspondence in the archives of the State Department bearing on the treaty would reach the committee Wednesday. It will be referred to a subcommittee and probably will be made public.

It is said this correspondence will show that one stae of the neotiations with Colombia during the Taft administration, the United States proposed to submit the dispute to arbitration with the knomledge that a verdict in favor of Colombia mould mean a judgment for at least $40,000,000.

Bryan's Statement.

Secretary Bryan's statement follows:

"Article I of the treaty now before the Senate reads: 'The government of the United States of America wishing to put at rest all controversies and differences with the Republic of Colombia arisin out of the events from which the present situation on the Isthmus of Panama resulted, expresses, in its own name and in the name of the people of the United States, sincere regret that anythini should have occurred to interrupt or to mar the relations of cordial friendship that has so long subsisted between the two nations.'

"'The government of the Republic of Colombia, in its own name and in the name of the Colombian people accepts this declaration in the full assurance that every obstacle to the restoration of complete harmony between the two countries will thus disappear.

"In what is known as the DuBois memorandum made during the Taft administration, which presented the basis upon which he was authorized to negotiate a treaty the following language is used:

"'The government and the people of the United States honestly regret anything should have ever occurred to mar, in any way the long and sincere friendship that existed for nearly a century between Colombia and the United States and the latter country has for years, earnestly desired to remove the ill feeling aroused in Colombia by the separation of Panama.'

"It will be seen from a comparison of the two paragraphs that they are identical in meaning and almost identical in language. In the DuBois memorandum, the United States 'honestly regrets' and in the pending treaty 'the government of the United States of America expressed in its own name and in the name of the people of the United States their sincere regret.'

No Material Difference.

"There is no material difference between 'honestly regrets' and 'sincerely regrets.' The pending treaty used the phrase 'to interrup or to mar' the DuBois memorandum uses the words 'to mar.' The DuBois memorandum describes the friendship formerly existing as 'sincere,' while the pending treaty describes it as 'cordial.'

"Both refer to the 'events of 1903'. The DuBois memorandum speaks of the 'ill feeling aroused in Colombia by the separation of Panama'; the pending treaty refers to 'the events from which the present situation on the Isthmus of Panama resulted.'

"In the pending treaty the government of Colombia accepts this declaration in the full assurance that every obstacle to the restoration of the complete harmony between the two countries will thus disappear while the DuBois memorandum declares that the United States earnestly desired to remove the ill-feeling aroused in Columbia by the separation of Panama.

"This comparison is made to show that the two 'expressions of regret' are in all essential particulars the same."

DAYTON DENIES CHARGES.

House Judiciary Committee Receives Communication from Him.

Washington, June 22. — Federal Judge Alston G. Dayton, of West Virginia, today sent to the House Judiciary committee formal statement denying all charges recently made against him by Representative Neely, of West Virginia. The statement was supported by numerous affidavits. Representative Neely has been asked to appear before the committee tomorrow to state whether he has specific information to support his demand for Judge Dayton's impeachment.

WASHINGTON MORE HOPEFUL OF PEACE

Since Announcement Came From Niagara Falls.

REBEL PARTICIPATION

United States Has Invited Carranza to Send Representatives to Niagara Falls to Confer With Others Now in Conference.

Washington, June 22.—Officials of the Washington government, whose hopes for peace in Mexico had been somewhat dampened by the events of last week, were more hopeful today when the announcement came from Niagara Falls that the United States had extended an invitation to representatives of the Mexican Constitutionalists to meet the American and Huerta delegates to the mediation conference for an informal discussion of peace proposals.

That the United States for some time had been exerting strong influence to bring the Constitutionalist leaders in the mediation conference, on such a basis was not denied here. It was intimated that this influence had met with success, and that representatives of the Constitutionalists soon would proceed to Niagara Falls. The announcement was reported here to have been the culmination of prolonged informal negotiations by the Washington administration with General Carranza, General Villa and other Constitutionalist chieftains, and conferences here last week by Dr. Romulo S. Naon, the Argentine minister, with President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and Washington representatives of the Constitutionalists.

Fernando Iglesias Calderon, Alfredo Breceda and Leopoldo Hurtado Espinosa, who have started for Washington as representatives of the Constitutionalist movement, it is believed here, will take charge of the proposed informal negotiations, or at least direct the general policy with reference thereto.

Administration officials today indicated that the plan of averting an abrupt end to mediation now presented would be prophetic of results. They looked for prompt responses from Constitutionalist leaders, but do not anticipate new developments in the actual provitsonal government plan to be devised until representatives of the United States and the warring Mexican faction had deliberateed together for some time.

WOULD FOREVER FORGET MASON AND DIXON LINE

Wilson Wants Lincoln Highway Through Washington.

President Writes the Head of Lincoln Highway Association Suggesting That Macadam Road Connect Two Sections.

Washington, June 22.—President Wilson expressed the wish today that the Mason and Dixon Line be forever forgotten. In a letter to H. B. Joy, of the Lincoln Highway Association, asking that the road run from Philadelphia to Gettysburg through Washington, the President suggested that it would be a good means of further obliterating sectional feeling between the North and the South.

The President's letter was as follows:

"I am sure that the entire country is interested to see to it that there should no longer exist a North or a South in this absolutely united country, which we all love, and that the imaginary Mason and Dixon's Line should be made once and for all a thing of the past, and as a small contribution to that end, I earnestly suggest that the Lincoln Highway Association should grant permission to place the official Lincoln Highway markers on the macadam roadway from Philadelphia to Washington through the properly selected streets of the latter city to the Lincoln monument, and from there through Frederick, Md., to Gettysburg.

"I am reliably informed that this route is now, or will be in the very near future be a modern macadam roadway from Philadelphia to Gettysburg through Washington. The entire expense of the roads, I am informed, including officially marking the highway, will be defrayed by local interests.

"Cordially and respectfully yours,
"WOODROW WILSON."

CONGRATULATORY TELEGRAM.

Sent to King of England by President Wilson—Former's Birthday.

Washington, June 22.—In recognition of the official celebration of the birthday of King George, President Wilson today sent this congratulatory telegram to the British monarch:

"I beg of your Majesty to accept my hearty felicitations on this birthday anniversary, and my best wishes for your continued happiness and wellbeing. At the same time I wish to convey to you the expression of the good will which this government and people bear to your great countray."

VILLA DETERMINED TO DEFEAT HUERTA

Will Fight His Way to Mexico City Regardless

OF GENERAL CARRANZA

Successful Leader of Constitutionalist Forces Plans to Fight Into the South After Fall of Zacatecas.

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 22.—General Villa is determined to complete the absolute defeat of Huerta and fight his way at the head of his army into Mexico City, irrespective of action Gen. Carranza may take, according to reports brought to the border today by travelers arriving from Torreon and Monterey. These reports state that after Villa succeeds in occupying Zacatecas he will push on south at once without waiting for troop movements other than those under his own direct control.

At Saltillo it is reported that Gen. Trevino, chief of staff to Carranza, is shortly to be assigned to field duty and is to command a brigade in the attack on San Luis Potisi. Gen. Eduardo Hay, who has been with Gen. Obregon's command on the west coast, is expected to succeed Trevino as chief of staff.

This change, it is understood, is part of the plan to heal the breach between Villa and Carranza. The retirement of Juan Breceda, one of Carranza's private secretaries, who left Saltillo a few days ago for Washington, and Isadro Fabela, acting secretary of foreign affairs, is also anticipated.

It was said by arrivals from Torreon that Major Fierro, of Gen. Villa's personal staff, went to Saltillo yesterday, but the object of his mission was not known publicly.

Major Fierro's name was closely connected with stories of the death of the Englishman William H. Benton, some months ago.

GOLF TOURNAMENT BEING PLAYED AT ASHEVILLE

For the Championship of North and South Carolina—Good Playing.

Asheville, N. C., June 22.—In the annual tournament of the Carolina Golf Association fo rthe championship of North adn South Carolina play started today with an invitation tournament open toboth professionals and amateurs. The honors were divided between C. T. Dunham, of Charlotte, amateur, and the professional from the same city, Tom Bonnar.

Dunham negotiated the 36 holes in 151 while Bonnar needed but a four on the second eighteenth to win the contest. He attempted a two on the home green, however,, overplayed and finally took five to hole out.

Tomorrow starts the contest for the amateur championship of the Carolinas, and the entry list includes some of the best known golfers of the two States. Several teams are entered for the Capers Memorial cup, and an interesting feature of the tournament will be playing for the cup offered by Frank Presbrey, well known amateur golfer, for the best "ringer" score of the tournament.

KENTUCKY ANTI-TRUST LAW IS ANNULLED.

Supreme Court Cites Harvester Case Opinion as Authority.

Washington, June 22.—The Kentucky State law making it legal for farmers to pool their tobacco, today was annulled as unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. The decision two weeks ago in the International Harvester Company cases were cited as authority for the court's action.

The conviction of Thomas Malone, another Kentucky tobacco grower who violated his pooling agreement, was set aside.

In substance, the court found that as a result of the passage of the tobacco pooling act, Kentucky court had held that the trust law of the State permitted any combination that did not enhance or depress prices above or below the real value of articles.

The Supreme Court held it was beyond human ingenuity to determine what was "real value" of an article under imaginary conditions.

COLLECTOR WALKER TAYLOR AT TREASURY DEPARTMENT

To Get Acquainted With Officials and See About New Building.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 22.—Col. Walker Taylor, collector of customs, of Wilmington, spent the day here. Col. Taylor called at the Treasury Department where he conferred with the officials at the head of his department.

Col. Taylor was also interested in seeing how the plans for the construction of the new Custom building at Wilmington are progressing. Representative Godwin and Senators Simmons and Overman are doing all they can to hurry the matter along.

Col. Taylor said his visit had no political significance. He came to Washington, he said, for the most part, to get acquainted with the treasury officials who have charge of the customs division. P. R. A.

Washington, June 22.—The House today passed the Senate joint resolution appropriating $31,000 for procuring title to land at Cape Henry, Virginia, for fortifications and coast defense purposes. The resolution now goes to the President.

CONTINUE PROBE INTO ST. LAWRENCE TRAGEDY

Have Not Indicated on Map Where Wreck Now Is

Captain Kendall and First Officer of the Collier Wh truck Empress of Irel isagree With Co sion.

Quebec, June —That neither Capt. Kendall, of the steamer Empress of Ireland, nor Alfred Tuftenes, first officer of the collier Starstad had indicated on maps the spot where a government commission claims the shattered hull of the liner now lies, was the most important point of the testimony heard today by Dominion Commission investigating the collision between the vessels. This developed when Capt. Gagnon, of the Department of Marines and Fisheries, was called to establish the position of the hull. It developed that Capt. Kendall had indicated the collision occurres about a mile and a quarter to the north of the spot where the hull lies and that Tuftenes gave a spot a few miles to the southeast.

STANDARD OIL LOST VIGOROUSLY WAGED FIGHT

Against Government Regulation of Pipe Lines—Court Decision.

Washington, June 22.—Standard Oil lost its vigorously waged fight against government regulation of its pipe lines today when the Supreme Court upheld the validity of the amtndment to the Hepburn rate law, which declared oil pipe lines across State lines common carriers subject to the authority of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

The court exempted from the operation of the Act the Uncle Sam Oil Company, an independent company, Chief Justice White and Justice McKenna dissenting from this action.

Justice McKenna also vigorously attacked the constitutionality of the Act.

Justice Holmes, announcing the majority's conclusion, pointed out that the Act was passed to relieve the country from the monopoly of the Standard Oil Company and the mere fact that the Standard's pipe lines owned all the oil it transports did not take it out of the class of common carriers.

COBB WILL FIGURE IN A BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

As the Result of Mis Melee With Butcher Clerk in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 22.—Tyrus R. Cobb, the famous outfielder of the Detroit American League baseball club, may e involved in a suit for damages on account of the utcher shop melee with W. C. Carpenter Saturday night. Cobb pointed a loaded revolver at Carpenter and then assaulted Harold Harding, an employe when the latter attempted to interfere. Harding is 20 years old.

Carpenter conferred with a local attorney today and said he was inclined to seek damages in a civil suit. It could not be learned whether any action would be taken on behalf of Harding.

Cobb, in a signed statement, admitted both charges. He said Carpenter had insulted Mrs. Cobb during an argument over a purchase she had made at the utcher shop. He went to Carpenter's place of business to demand an apology and declared he took an automatic revolver to protect himself if necessary.

RAILROAD'S TITLE UPHELD.

In Valuable Land Deal Over Other Private Claimants.

Washington, June 22.—Title of trans-continental railroads to some $700,000,000 worth of petroleum land as against other private claimants, was upheld today by the Supreme court in a test suit brought by Edmund Burke, of California, against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

At the same time Justice Van DeVanter, for the court, stated that seemingly the government's right to attack the railroad's title for fraud or error had expired in 1900 or 1901. It was made plain, however, that the government's rights were not involved in the case before the court, and there was no mention of the recent suit brought by the government against the Southern Pacific to regain the lands in question.

Government officials, after the decision, said they would press the suit.

WOULD LIBERALIZE "STAR CHAMBER" FEATURES.

Of Prosecutions—Webb Introduces Bill in Lower House.

Washington, June 22.—Representative Webb, of North Carolina, today introduced a bill to provide that persons indicted or informed against for crimes and misdemeanors other than capital offenses shall be furnished copies of the indictment or information at or before the time of arraignment, or pleading. Names and addresses of witnesses would also be furnished defendants at least one day before trial.

Mr. Webb who heads the Judiciary committee, to which the bill was referred, seeks to liberalize the "star chamber" features of prosecutions.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

Lawrence Robinson Claims He Did Not Shoot Police Inspector.

Boston, Mass., June 22.—A plea of not guilty was entered by Lawrence Robinson, alleged slayer of three jewelry store clerks at Grand Rapids, Mich., when arraigned today charged with the murder of Police Inspector Thomas F. Norton.

Norton was shot and killed in a restaurant Friday evening as he was about to arrest Robinson.

AGENTS OF WARRING FACTIONS TO MEET

Informal Cenference, Distinct From Mediation.

PLANS NOW BEING MADE

Those at Niagara Falls Will Probably be in Position to Announce Personnel of Carranza Representatives Today.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 22.—Through the invitation of the United States government and the good offices of the three South American mediators, representatives of the two warring factions in Mexico—the Constitutionalists and the Huerta government—soon will be brought face to face in an informal conference, distinct from the mediation proceedings.

To save Mexico from further spoilation and the possibility of a foreign war, the Constitutionalists apparently have been prevailed upon to meet their countrymen—the Huerta delegates—in a conference whose object shall be the ending of the Mexican civil strife. The belief is general that this plan stands an excellent chance of being carried to success if recent differences between Generals Villa and Carranza are sufficiently composed to give guarantee that the Constitutionalist delegation may work without embarrassment.

Arrangements for the meeting are in a formative state. The mediators and American and Huerta delegates, however, believe that by tomorrow or Wednesday, at the least, they will be able to announce not only the personnel of the Constitutionalist delegation but the place of the meeting and its general purposes. The new plan has buoyed the hopes of the principals to mediation.

The South American envoys discussed it briefly with the American delegates today and later conferred with the Huerta delegates, who were asked formally if they would meet Constitutionalist representatives. The Huerta delegates replied they were willing to enter any conference with their countrymen which had for its object the prevention of bloodshed and the destruction of property and sought to establish a national government on a firm basis.

The Plan Mapped Out.

The plan the mediators have worked out is to confine the formal mediation conferences to a consideration of international questions, treating with the Huerta and American delegates on these points. On internal questions, the Huerta and Constitutionalist delegates would be expected to confer alone. They would discuss the names for the provisional presidency while the mediators and American delegates would await the outcome of their efforts before preparing a final protocol.

Fernando Iglesias Calderon is expected to head the Carranza delegation. Although there was no official announcement here it was understood that General Carranza, through Luis Cabrera, his Washington representative, had given his assent to the plan of holding the conference separate from the mediation and that details were being worked out now by telegraph.

It is virtually certain that no armistice would be declared by the Constitutionalists until an agreement of a definite character is reached in the informal conferences as to the establishment of the provisional government. On arriving at such an understanding, it would be expected that a general suspension of hostilities would be proclaimed and the Constitutionalist delegates then might be formally admitted to the mediation proceedings for the signing of the final protocol, recording the solution of the differences between Mexico and the United States.

SOME IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

Handed Down by the Supreme Court in Session Yesterday.

Washington, June 22—The Supreme Court today reversed the Commerce Court and upheld the inter-mountain rate order of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, the government's contention being sustained.

The court affirmed the decree of the New York Federal court, holding organizations of Eastern States retail lumber dealers had violated the Sherman anti-trust law by circulating among their members lists of wholesalers who sold lumber direct to big consumers.

The Pipe Line Act of 1906, placing all inter-State oil pipe lines under Inter-State Commerce regulations, was upheld by the Supreme Court. The court held, however, that the act is not applicable to the Uncle Sam Oil Company.

Trans-continental railways won their fight for title to seven hundred million dollars worth of California oil lands when the Supreme Court today held void the clause in the patents making the land revert to the government if later found to contain minerals.

The Supreme Court recessed until October without announcing decisions in the Taft withdrawal of oil land case, the grandfather clause cases, the Nashville grain re-shipping case, and several other cases.

Memphis Bank President Who Misappropriated Over Million Dollars.

Memphis, Tenn., June 22.—Trial of C. Hunter Raine, former president of the Mercantile Bank of this city, who is charged with having misappropriated $1,091,000 of the bank's funds, was today continued until the Fall term of Criminal Court, after sixteen men of a special venire had been examined without securing a juror. Fifty veniremen were examined last week, but none qualified

RUMBLINGS OF WAR REACH WHITE HOUSE

Turkey Protests Against Sale of Battleships.

TO THE GREEK NATION

Greece Claims That Purchase of American Vessels Will Prevent War Between That Nation and Turkey.

Washington, June 22.—With the Turkish government formally protesting against the proposed sale of the American battleships Mississippi and Idaho to Greece, rumblings of war between Greece and Turkey were carried today to the White House. Diplomatic representatives of the two countries called on President Wilson within a few minutes of each other—one to urge and the other to oppose the deal.

Greece takes the position that if she buys the vessels, the balance of power in the Mediterranean will be while Turkey claims peace best can be guaranteed by the refusal of the United States to aid in augmenting her rival's naval force.

President Wilson told caliers earlier in the day that he favored the sale of the battleships to Greece because it had been represented to him that such action would be in the interest of peace. He said that if he thought the vessels would be used in an immediate war he would not consent to their sale.

Before House Today.

The question of the sale of the battleships will come up in the House tomorrow on a Senate amendment to the Naval Appropriation bill. Secretary Daniels desires the $12,000,000 Greece is willing to pay for them to build a dreadnought and most Congress leaders have been inclined to authorize the step.

The new Turkish ambassador, Rustem Bey, called on the President ostensibly to present his credentials, and the Greek 'charge d'affaires, A. Vourous, presented the new Greek naval attache, Commander Tsouklas. Both diplomats took the opportunity, however, to present their views on the battleship controversy.

The Greek charge later said the acquisition of the battleships by Greece was necessary to prevent a war between Turkey and Greece, which otherwise would be brought about by the Turkish seizure of adjacent Greek possessions.

GREGORIO ALCAREZ HAS TURNED UP SAFE

Captured Cuban Servant Now at Mexico City.

Was Arrested by Mexican Federals and Carried to Mexican Federal Prison—Tried and Acquitted as American Spy.

Mexico City, June 22.—Gregorio Alcarez, the Filipino servant of Captain Rush, of the United States battleship Florida, for whom the State Department at Washington instituted a search, walked into the Brazilian legation today and introduced himself to the minister. He showed no signs of ill-treatment.

Alcarez said he was released from the Santiago military prison June 9th when at the invitation of a fellow prisoner, a Mexican, he went to Tizapan, a few miles from the capital. He remained there until today when he read a newspaper account of the search being made for him by the Mexican police. He then came here immediately. He said he had no money and had been unable to return to Vera Cruz.

Alcarez said he left Vera Cruz May 6th to buy fruit for Capt. Rush. On passing the Mexican lines he was arrested as a spy. He did not reveal his connection with the United States navy. He was taken to Paso Del Macho, then transferred to Cordoba.

The Filipino arrived in Mexico City in custody on May 10th and was confined in the military barracks. On May 15th he was removed to Santiago prison.

Alcarez said he was tried and acquitted on a charge of being an American spy. He will leave Mexico City tomorrow for Vera Cruz.

FURTHER REBEL ACTIVITIES.

In Santo Domingo and Haiti Cabled to Navy Department Last Night.

Washington, June 22.—News of further rebel activities in Santo Domingo and Haiti was cabled to the Navy Department tonight by Captain Russell, of the battleship South Carolina. A British subject, a woman employed at the home of the manager of the electric light company, died today after being struck by a bullet during the fighting between President Bordas' forces and the revolutionists attacking the Dominican capital.

Many Americans are preparing to leave the besieged city, the dispatch said.

Captain Russell said it was reported the Haitien minister of war, at the head of the government forces, had been defeated by the rebels in the South.

COMMERCE COURT'S ACTION REVERSED

And Inter-State Commission's Order is Upheld.

BY THE SUPREME COURT

Court First Decided That the Long and Short Haul Clause is Constitutional—So-called Inter-Mountain Case.

Washington, June 22.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission's so-called inter-mountain rate orders were sustained as valid today by the Supreme court which held, at the same time, that the long and short haul clause of the Inter-State Commerce law was constitutional. Both had been attacked by trans-continental railroads.

The defunct commerce court, passing over the constitutional question had annulled the orders on the ground that the commission had no authority to issue "blanket" or "zone" orders and might act only on the reasonableness of specific rates.

In overturning that contention to day and holding that the commission did not have that power, the Supreme court decided a point that lawyers and close observers of the Inter-State Commerce Commission's procedure say it is of equal importance to the inter-mountain rate case itself—if not greater.

Opposition to the five per cent. increase in freight rates being asked by the Eastern railroads—and on which the Inter-State Commerce Commission is expected to announce its decision any day—had been based principally on the contention that the commission did not have authority under the law to grant such a "blanket" increase.

Effect Not Limited.

What the effect—if any—of the decision on the rate case may be, only can be the subject of conjecture. Some among the well informed in the commission's procedure, however, say the decision in the disposition of the railroad's application has been delayed awaiting the Supreme court's decision on that point.

As a result of the decision all discussion is removed as to the commission's right not to passe on the reasonableness of a lower rate for a haul to a more distant city than to a nearer one in the same direction.

It recognizes the commission's power to fix such rates by zones as distinguished from taking up the conditions surrounding each point of shipment in the United States.

Chief Justice White announced the unanimous decision of the court.

The inter-mountain rate orders were issued in June and July, 1911, by the Inter-State Commerce Commission under authority of the "long and short haul section" of the Inter-State Commerce act, which clothed the commission with discretion fo make exceptions to the general rule, laid down in the law that railroads should not charge more for a short haul than for a longer haul in the same direction and over the same lines or routes.

Practically all the railroads traversing the inter-mountain region of the West applied to the commission to have exceptions made so that a higher rate could be charged on shipments from the East to inter-mountain cities, such as Spokane, Wash., Reno, Nev., and Phoenix, Ariz.

The rates to these cities from points east of the rockies had for years been made by adding the through rate to the Pacific coast and the local rate from the Pacific back to the interior city.

Rebelled Against Monopoly.

The inter-mountain points rebelled against what they claimed was a monopoly given to the Pacific coast cities of the trade at all point sfrom the coast back to the very doors of the inter-mountain cities.

The chief justice next upheld the making of rates by the commission by zones.

"The zones selected by the commission were in substance the same as those previously fixed by the carriers as the basis of the rate making which was included in the tariffs which were under investigation and therefore we may put that subject out of view.

"Indeed except as to questions of power there is no contention in the argument as to the inequality of the zones of percentages or as to any undue preference or discrimination resulting from the action taken. But be it as it may in view of the findings of the commission as to the system of rates prevailing the tariffs which were before it or the inequalities or the burdens it engendered by such system of the possible aggranizement unnaturally beyond the limits produced by competition in favor of the competitive points and against other points by the tariff in question facts which we accept and which indeed are unchallenged, we see no ground for saying that the order was not sustained by the facts upon which it was based or that it exceeded the powers which the statute conferred or transcended the limits of the sound legal discretion which it lodged in the commission when acting upon the subject before it."

Justice White's Decision.

On the constitutionality of the long and short haul clause, Chief Justice White said:

"It is certain that the fundamental change which it makes is the omission of the substantially similar circumstances and conditions clause, thereby leaving the long and short haul clause in a sense unequalified except in so far as the section gives the right to the carrier to apply to the commission for authority 'ti charge less for longer than for shorter distances for the transportation of persons or property' and gives the commission

GRANVILLE NOMINATES FARMER FOR SENATE

D. G. Brummit, Oxford Lawyer, Nominated for House.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Oxford, N. C., June 22.—An exciting contest for nomination by the Democratic party for county and legislative offices closed Saturday. A number of nominations were made and a second primary will be held next Saturday to choose a treasurer and three commissioners.

Titus G. Currin, a prominent farmer living near here, was nominated for State senator over Dr. Elijah B. Meadows by about 100 majority in a total of 1,800 votes cast. Dennis G. Brummitt was nominated for the House of Representatives unanimously.

Three commissioners and a treasurer are to be selected Saturday the 27th.

"NO THIRD LEAGUE PRESENT SEASON."

So Says Big Ban Johnson, President of American League.

Chicago, June 22.—President Ban Johnson, of the American League, said late today that there will be no third major league this season, if at all.

"The third league idea merely was suggested to the National Commission and it is merely a possibility," he said. "No definite action was taken at our meeting in New York."

POVERTY VOWS ARE HELD LEGAL BY SUPREME COURT.

United States Circuit Court of Appeals Reversed by Higher Court.

Washington, June 22.—Doubt cast on the validity of vows to poverty in many Catholic orders was removed today by the Supreme Court, which reversed the decision of the eighth United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

The lower court, sitting in Minnesota, held the cows void as against public policy on the grounds they did not permit a person making them ever to withdraw from the order. The Supreme Court today, speaking through Justice Hughes, announced that the lower court had erred by not distinguishing between the religious and civil natures of the vows. It was pointed out a person was permitted to withdraw civilly, although his withdrawal in a religious sense was a matter of conscience.

The case arose in the settlement of the estate of Father Augustin Wirth in charge of a church at Springfield, Minn., at the time of his death. Relatives claimed property in his possession at the time of his death, despite his vow to the order of St. Benedict to possess no property and to turn over to the order all worldly possessions.

In the presentation of the case to the court it was stated that the decision of the court below, if sustained, would throw in doubt the title to millions of dollars worth of property held by religious orders, particularly those of the Catholic church.

DESTRUCTIVE HAIL AND WIND STORM AT WHITAKERS

Buildings Demolished, Crops Badly Damaged—One Person Injured.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Rocky Mount, N. C., June 22.—Persons arriving here tonight tell of great destruction by a hail and wind storm at Whitakers. A three-story wholesale grocery store building was demolished and one man seriously injured. Factories lost sheds and smokestacks. The colored Masonic hall was demolished and chimneys crashed through the roofs of residences. Crops in the immediate vicinity of Whitakers were damaged to the extent of many thousands of dollars.

All wires to Whitakers are down and it is impossible tonight to get more than meagre information.

ORGANIZED BASEBALL WINS ANOTRER VICTORY

Injunction Restraining Marscans from Playing

With the Federal League is Granted by Federal Judge W. H. Sanborn, at St. Paul, Minn., Last Night.

St. Paul, Minn., June 22.—Organized baseball won another victory tonight, when Federal Judge W. H. Sanborn granted a temporary injunction restraining Armando Marscans, former Cuban left fielder of the Cincinnati Nationals, from playing with the St. Louis Federals or any other ball club, except Cincinnati, until the alleged breach of contract he is charged with has been tried in Federal Court in St. Louis.

While the action is pending, Judge Sanborn ordered the Cincinnati Exhibition Company, owners of the club, to give a bond of $13,000 to indemnify Marscans for any possible loss he might possibly sustain as a result of the injunction.

The validity of the ten-day clause in organized baseball contracts was upheld by Judge Sanborn. He based his decision on the fact that Marscans accepted a contract in writing in which the Cincinnati Club agreed to employ for a specified period at a fixed compensation on condition that the club should have the right to discharge him on ten days' notice. The contract was valid and binding, after Marscans entered on the performance of the contract and received the compensation, according to the terms of agreement, the court held.

Marscans has been a member of the Cincinnati team three years, the present making the fourth year. He objected to the ten-day clause in his contract, and gave ten days notice to the management early in June, hoping, so he claimed, that the obnoxious ten-day clause would be taken out of his contract. On the afternoon o fthe same day Marscans was suspended without pay for alleged disloyalty to the team and for other reasons.

During his suspension he opened negotiations with the St. Louis club of the Federal League. His suspension suddenly ended, but he "jumped" to the St. Louis Federals, claiming his contract with Cincinnati was illegal, on account of the ten-day clause.

The case now will be tried on its merits. In the meantime, Marscans can go back to the Cincinnatis or not play ball.

NEW TYPE OF PAPER MONEY

Treasury Department Preparing New Bills to be Used After Establishment of Reserve Bank.

A new type of paper money, consisting of $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100 bills, is to be put in circulation shortly after the establishment of the Federal Reserve Banks within the next few weeks, the step being taken as the fulfillment of a long-existing desire on the part of the Treasury Department to make all paper money more uniform.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post contributes to his paper the following relative to the new currency:

Paper money of a new type worth millions of dollars will be put into circulation upon the establishment of the Federal Reserve Banks within the next few weeks.

Under the Federal Reserve Bank Act each of the 12 Federal Reserve banks will receive advances from the Federal Reserve Board in the form of Federal Reserve notes, a distinctly new sort of paper money. Commercial paper will be the collateral advanced by the various banks as security for these notes.

John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, has samples of this new paper money now under consideration. At his request, Joseph E. Ralph, director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, prepared notes of $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100 denominations, and these have been submitted to Secretary McAdoo. It is not likely, however, that the samples will be accepted officially until the members of the Federal Reserve Board have been confirmed by the Senate and can confer with Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams concerning the new notes.

The new $5 note submitted to Mr. Ralph is typical of agriculture. The portrait on the face of the note is Lincoln's, and the back shows a harvesting machine and allegorical figures typical of farming. The $10 note bears a portrait of Cleveland and a manufacturing scene. The $20 note bears Jackson's portrait and is typical of commerce, having a steamship, train and other mediums of trade on the back. Grant's picture is shown on the $50 note, and Franklin's portrait adorns the $100 note. Both of these larger notes are typical of the arts. All will be printed in green ink on the back, while black ink will be used on the faces.

For some time the Treasury Department has been anxious to make all paper money more uniform. At present, different portraits appear on different sorts of paper money of the same denomination. It is likely that the portraits selected for use on the Federal Reserve notes also will be used on other paper money. So, in the future, all bank notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, and Federal Reserve notes of $5 denomination will probably bear Lincoln's portrait, and so on, through the series, up to $100.

ARTISTIC CHARCOAL SKETCH.

Misses Council, of Lake Waccamaw, Paint Picture of Unique Design.

A charcoal sketch of unique design representing three home comforts, these being The Morning Star, a pair of glasses and a familiar looking pipe, has been painted by Misses Agnes and Rena Council, two cultured and refined young ladies of Lake Waccamaw. The work is done most artistically and shows that these young ladies have more than ordinary artistic talent. The design is the work of Miss Agnes Council, while the execution was done mainly by Miss Rena Council.

The Star is indebted to the young ladies for the picture and it now occupies an honored position in the office of the managing editor. It is to him a source of inspiration as he nightly toils with the temperature in the nineties to occasionally have time to look at it. It has received warm praise from a large number of people who have seen it.

Miss Agnes Council received her training in art at the Peace Institute in Raleigh and Miss Rena Council has also studied art at several schools. For several years they have been painting sketches which have received much admiration from their many friends.

WILL TEST CANADIAN PINE

Representative from Canada to Inspect New Plant of National Wood Products Co.

Because they are interested in the new plant for extracting turpentine from the fat pine which was recently put into operation by the National Wood Products Company in the northern part of the city, representatives of the British government, the Canadian Pacific Railroad, and the Forest Products Laboratory, of Canada, will visit this city next month to inspect the new process thoroughly. They will have a carload of Canadian pine shipped to Wilmington and will try it out in the new plant.

Their object in making the visit is to find out if the process, which was patented recently is applicable to the kind of pine that grows in Canada. The system was worked out by Mr. Thos. W. Pritchard and was given a thorough trial before a plant for practical purposes was erected. After it had been conclusively demonstrated that it was practicable the present plant of the company was erected on Smith's creek. It has now been in active operation for over a month and has proven to be entirely satisfactory.

The plant in Wilmington is the only large plant that has yet been put into operation, but the system will in all probability be introduced into Canada. The process has been tested out under all kinds of conditions, favorable and unfavorable, and the promoters feel sure that it will be found to be entirely satisfactory for use in Canada.

The process extracts the turpentine from fat pine, commonly known as lightwood, and is said to be the only process that does this that produces turpentine free of impurities.

—There will be an important meeting at the Wrightsboro Baptist church tonight at 8:15 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. Marshall Craig, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to one and all.

RAILROADS PROMISE REVISION OF RATES

To Eliminate Objectionable Features Via Norfolk

At Present Through Rates to North Carolina Via Norfolk is Greater Than Combination of Local Rates—Hearing.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 22.—Chairman E. L. Travis, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, is just back from Norfolk where he went to take a hand in the interest of North Carolina shippers in a hearing scheduled there last week before a representative of the Inter-State Commerce Commission on a petition of the railroad companies for permission to continue to charge through freight rates to North Carolina points that exceed the combination on Norfolk, that being the combination of the rate to Norfolk and the rate from Norfolk to the point of destination.

The Corporation Commission had filed some time ago a petition with the Inter-State Commerce Commission against this practice of the railroad companies, using a series of rates from northern and eastern points through Norfolk to Charlotte as illustrating alleged abuses that need remedying.

At the Norfolk hearing the railroad companies announced their intention of revising their rates in such way as to eliminate nearly if not all of the North Carolina rates that are in excess of the combination of locals and in the light of this announcement it was decided not to go into these matters until this revision is completed and submitted. Then, if there are still abuses that are deemed of sufficient magnitude to carry before the Inter-State Commission in special hearings, this course will be taken with a special case for each objectionable rate.

West Asheville Has Water Trouble.

The Corporation Commissioners will go to Asheville tomorrow to give a special hearing in the case of a petition on the part of citizens of West Asheville charging that the Buckeye Water Company that supplies the water service for the place is providing an inadequate supply of water. The West Asheville water supply is entirely separate and apart from the Asheville water plant which is owned and operated by the city.

Pay for Cruise of Naval Militia.

Adjutant General Laurence W. Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, has completed an official estimate of the cost of the practice cruise of the four North Carolina divisions of naval militia on board the battleship Rhode Island that foots up $7,500. This will be sent to the War Department at Washington for the procurement of the money with which to pay the officers and men off. They embark July 6 and disembark July 20, the pay of the officers and men being the same for the period that the regulars receive.

DEATH OF MR. R. M. WHITE.

Citizen of Florida Passes Away at Warsaw.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., June 22.—Mr. R. M. White, a resident of the State of Florida, died here on June 16, while on a visit to his son, Mr. T. E. White, who is superintendent of the Potts farm. Mr. White was born in Gadsden county, Florida, December 6, 1840, and rendered gallant service in the Confederate army, serving in Fingas' Brigade of the Eighth Florida regiment.

After the war he married in Decatur county, Georgia, where he lived for fifteen years, and from there went back to his native State. He came to visit his son, after attending the reunion at Jacksonville, and was here only a short while when taken ill and died in a few days.

As a soldier he was efficient and brave, as a citizen he ever rendered to his fellow man his just due, as a Christian he was ever loyal to his church, a staunch Baptist, a deacon for a long time, and his devotion to his Master was apparently considered his supreme duty.

TO BEGIN WORK ON SHOPS AT FLORENCE.

A. C. L. to Spend $100,000 in Enlargement and Improvement.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 22.—Contractor D. J. Rose, of this city, has gone to Florence, S. C., and is now preparing to begin active work on the construction of the large new shops for the Atlantic Coast Line, the requisite amount of money for this work, more than $100,000, having been appropriated at the February meeting of the board of directors in New York.

The new shops call for a large new roundhouse, new turn-table, new planing mill, new machine shop and various other buildings necessary for the greatly increased work at the shops.

It is said that the work soon to be under way will take more than one year to complete. The new shops will be of concrete and steel construction, and will be built to the rear, to the east and west of the present shops, and will be not only modern in construction but modern in equipment in every detail.

DOUBLE TRACK PUT INTO GENERAL USE.

Fifty-three Mile Stretch on A. C. L. Ready for All Trains.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 22.—While for some months the Atlantic Coast Line has been using the stretch of double tracking between Pleasant Hill and Petersburg for its freight traffic for the purpose of packing the grading, it has recently been decided by officials that, effective June 29th, this stretch of 53 miles of double tracking should be put into general service for all trains.

This new tracking is equipped with interlocking signals. The putting of this 53-mile trackage into general service for all trains will greatly facilitate the handling of trains over this line, and will incidentally complete the stretch of 162 miles of electric interlocking double trackage handled by telephone dispatching system. The new track has been used for freight traffic for some months.

THEATRICAL

Today Wilmington theatre-goers will have set before them one of the biggest, in fact, the very biggest thing in moving pictures, when Mr. Daniel Frohman will present the distinguished actress, Miss Mary Pickford, and star cast, in the wonderful dramatic success, "The Good Little Devil." It indeed seems superfluous to dwell upon this event, because every theatre-goer in Wilmington should be conversant with its importance. However, it is well to impress upon the people, "lest they forget," that the film sensation to be offered today at The Grand is the most mammoth and the most costly of any yet seen in Wilmington. The play, as is well known, was one of New York's greatest hits, and now that it has been made into moving pictures it appears even greater. The story, on the screen is told in five big reels, and the scenery is of really magnificent type, while the acting is superb. Miss Pickford portrays the role of "Juliet," and her support is perfect. In fact, the original star, David Belasco cast appears in the performance, while Mr. Frohman has given the piece a wonderful production.

It will be 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children and in order that all may have ample time to behold the performances will commence at 11 o'clock this morning and continue, without interruption until 11 o'clock tonight.

At The Popular Playhouse.

Heading today's big bill at the popular photoplay pleasure palace is a mammoth Imp two-reel drama, "The Man Who Lost, But Won." It tells the story of the man who married a girl as second choice—a girl whom no one seemed to think much of—and later discovered that she was the one really meant for him. Have you ever run across such a case? Very likely. But the author has gone further than developing this one situation alone. The young minister's marriage to a lovely young woman of his flock. Then another girl shows up to whom the minister was engaged in his school days. The minister suddenly finds himself under the necessity of marrying his fiancee off to his rival. This is the beginning of one of the biggest stories of modern times. It's a sure winner, one that will hold you spellbound at the delicate and intricate manner in which the many complications are untangled by a master hand.

"The Girl Next Door" is a full-reel Frontier drama that comes next on today's menu, and it's another topliner in a single-reel subject. It tells a brand new story—not an old plot worked over—and is sure to please everyone.

Another rousing Keystone comedy, "Fatal High C" ends today's brilliant offering, and will prove one of the most ridiculously amusing and laughable comedies yet produced by this company of comic actors.

Movies at the Victoria.

Was the opening of the Victoria Theatre's summer season of moving pictures a success? It certainly was. It was a rousing triumph and gave indication of the supreme popularity of the new venture with the people of Wilmington.

The opening show yesterday, consisting of six reels, was joyously received by big audiences, and loud were the words of praise given the Victoria and its enterprising management. Six more reels make up the menu today. In fact, there will be six reels, featured by a great sensation, every day, and the price of admission will be but 5 cents, afternoon and night.

Look what's here as the star of today's 6-reel show. It's the expensive and startling three-part thrill, "Balaoo, the Demon Baboon." It is a film that is weirdly sensational and that will present a thrill a second. It is the story of a fierce man-monkey, and the adventures the animal has, as it plies its work of fury, are indeed startling. It has been pronounced the sensation of the age.

But this is not the only big special feature today. Lubin's "The Weaker Brother," in two reels, is also a star. It's a story of the card and wine table, and then of the war. It's a great thriller, with a big moral. Yet another blue ribboner today is Selig's "The Mother of Seven". Now this is the clown film of the programme and it is a snorter for great laughs.

So it can be seen that today's great array at the Victoria is a brilliant one.

NEGRO SAYS HE CAN'T HELP SELLING WHISKEY.

Recorder, However, Decides He Will Not Sell Any for Next Year.

Declaring that it is impossible for him not to sell whiskey, Cain Miller, colored, yesterday entered a submission in Justice Harriss' court to a charge of violating the prohibition law Probable cause was found and the case sent over to the Recorder. Miller refused to employ a lawyer, stating that it was no use. Doubtless he was right for the Recorder gave him 12 months on the roads, effectually stoping him for that length of time from selling booze.

Miller has been on the roads several times before for the same offense. When arrested Saturday afternoon he had in his possession 52 bottles of beer and seven quarts of whiskey.

Robert Flowers, a colored boy, was given three months on the county roads for the larceny of a dollar from another colored boy. Flowers stopped the boy on the streets and asked him for change for a dollar. When it was given him he took it and ran away. He was riding a wheel at the time but left it behind. This was taken to police headquarters and when Flowers called to get it he was arrested.

Probable cause was found by the Recorder in a case against Henry Green, colored, charging him with larceny from the person. It is alleged that he snatched a purse from a colored girl. In default of bond in the sum of $250 he went to jail to await trial at the next term of Superior Court.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in the case of John Harlee, colored, charged with reckless driving of an automobile, and Geo. Gibbs, colored, charged with riding a bicycle on the sidewalk. Dora Crayford, colored, was given 30 days on the county farm on a charge of vagrancy. Julia Taylor, colored, was acquitted of a similar offense. A case against Beulah Pickett, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was continued pending an investigation.

DWELLING BURNED.

G. T. Tyson Loses Residence—Loss Near $5,000.

Greenville, N. C., June 21.—News of the loss by fire of the residence of G. T. Tyson, about nine miles in the country has reached here. The fire originated from an oil stove, on which supper was being prepared, about 6 o'clock Friday evening. Owing to the hour of the fire much furniture was saved, but the loss is heavy. It was one of the best country homes in the county, being modern, handsome and costly. Mr. Tyson is one of our best and most successful farmers and prominent in farm circles and public affairs in general. He had some insurance, but nothing like enough to cover the loss of not less than $5,000.

The rains last week were great for crops and farmers are now talking of good crops, though the stand of tobacco is very poor and the crop must necessarily be short. Corn and cotton are doing fine, but more rain is wanted.

BEFORE JUSTICE HARRISS.

Probable Cause Found in Case of Small Colored Boy for Larceny.

Probable cause was found by Justice Harriss yesterday in a case against John Bryant, a 10-year-old colored boy, chared with stealing $19 from Thomas Bell, colored, in East Wilmington several days ago. In default of bond the boy was sent to jail to await a hearing before the Recorder this morning. According to the evidence the negro was living in the house with Bell when he took the money and bouht two suits of clothes.

On a warrant issued before Justice Harriss, Oliver Armstrong, colored, was arrested yesterday by Constable Davis for false pretense. It is alleged that he got seevral articles from Mr. J. T. Tettit. He gave bond for his appearance Saturday morning.

Charged with non-support, Oliver Herring, colored, was arrested yesterday by Constable Davis. He gave bond for his appearance before Justice Harriss this morning at 10 o'clock.

—There will be a special meeting of the Board of Health this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the office of the county health officer. The object of the meeting was not stated yesterday.

HOW RESINOL CLEARS AWAY UGLY PIMPLES

It is so easy to get rid of pimples and blackheads with Resinol, and it costs so little, too, that anyone whose face is disfigured by these pests is foolish to keep on with useless cosmetics, or complicated "beauty treatments." See how simply it is done:

Bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and hot water, then apply a little Resinol Ointment very gently. Let this stay on ten minutes, and wash off with Resinol Soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished to find how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, leaving the complexion clear and velvety.

Resinol stops itching instantly and speedily heals skin humors. Resinol Ointment and Soap sold by all druggists. For free trial size, write Dept. KK, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Purifies Blood With Telling Effect

Gives Conscious Evidence of Its Direct Action.

S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, almost talks as it sweeps its way through the circulation. Its action is so direct that very often in some forms of skin affliction the appearance of the eruptions changes over night, the itch and redness are gone and recovery begins immediately.

As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming eczema, rash, pimples, and all skin afflictions.

And in regenerating the tissues S. S. S. has a rapid and positive antidotal effect upon all those irritating influences that cause rheumatism, sore throat, weak eyes, loss of weight, thin, pale cheeks, and that weariness of muscle and nerve that is generally experienced as spring fever. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life. S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 534 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who maintain a very efficient Medical Department, where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may write freely for advice and a special book of instruction. S. S. S. is sold everywhere by drug stores, department and general stores, but beware of all substitutes. Do not accept them.

Sleeveless Gowns Require Hairless Arms

Fashion says sleeveless, low-necked gowns for this season. This means hairless arms and neck, if you do not want to be humiliated. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. say that the safest, best and quickest way to be absolutely free from all trace of superfluous hair is to use the famous medical prescription known as Mrs. Osgood's Wonder for Superfluous Hair.

It is delightful to use and absolutely harmless. A single application makes hair on face, neck, arms, hands, or any other part of the body quickly disappear.

The cost is small, and J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. will supply you, or in fact, any up-to-date druggist or department store, on a Money-Back guarantee basis.

The Spirit of Progress

During the last few years Wilmington has made splendid progress in many directions—her population has increased rapidly; her streets have been improved and beautified; her car lines have been extended; many handsome buildings have been erected; her school system has been added to and improved; and business enterprise has prospered.

A natural and commendable desire for better things has filled our people with a spirit of progress and improvement.

We must keep the good work up. Every man, woman and child should take a part in this forward movement. This bank can help you do your share. Come to see us.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily at $6 per year; $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed, to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO

The North Carolina doctors at the meeting of the State Medical Association adopted a resolution which in effect declared that liquor is not medicine. They might have done the same about water but that would not have made water less popular.

Says the New York World: "The Department of Agriculture announces unofficially that the moon and the planets have no effect upon the weather and therefore no effect upon the crops." That will keep the Republicans from trying to claim that the big wheat crop in the West was due to the moon and the planets and was not on account of what President Wilson has been doing to make the farmers happy.

PROGRESSIVE RAILROADING.

Probaby the most hopeful sign of the substantial development of the South Atantic is the fact that the railroads are leading in progress instead of keeping up with it. We are satisfied that if Eastern North Carolina will only keep up with the progress of the Atlantic Coast Line, it will some day be the most desirable portion of America.

The Coast Line is doing things along its entire system in various Southern States. While it is bettering the physical condition of its line and its equipment and constantly increasing its facilities to meet the needs of the country, it is several laps ahead of the country in carrying out undertakings to promote its greater development. In some respects, the Atlantic Coast Line has got us coming on behind and the question is whether we are going to try to catch up.

A few days ago in its report the South Carolina railroad commission praised the Atlantic Coast Line for what it is doing. It commended the system for the improvements it has made and is making on its roadbed and trestles and in bettering its equipment as the service warrants. The Charleston News and Courier adds to the approval of the commission, and states that the work being done in the replacing of wooden trestles with steel spans and concrete abutments is a constructive work of the most substantial character. That paper also notes that every needful appliance which would make for safety is being adopted.

Both in North and in South Carolina the roadbeds of the main line and branch lines have been put in excellent condition and steady progress is being made in the double-tracking, which has been in progress several years. The building of a new railroad right down through North Carolina would be haled as a marked evidence of progress and it would practically be a sensational event in even these days of remarkable progress, but with little or no flourish of trumpets the Atlantic Coast Line is constructing a parallel line with the main line from Richmond through North Carolina to Charleston. It will cost many more times than the construction of the original line, while the work requires a large amount of labor and is serving to keep money afloat wherever the work is in progress.

Referring to the improvements made by the Atlantic Coast Line, our valued Charleston contemporary declares that there is no comparison between the facility with which the Atlantic Coast Line is able to dispatch business of all kinds out of Charleston today and the conditions which existed only four or five years ago. That is quite as true at Wilmington, if not more so, for here the Coast Line has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on its new yards and terminals, in the construction of a metropolitan union station, and in new office buildings and betterments generally. The accommodations here, as well as in Charleston, have been bettered in every respect, and in many particulars the Atlantic Coast Line has not only met the public demands but has anticipated the presetn needs of various communities.

It is a little unusual for a railroad commission to commend a railroad, but it is deserved and no doubt it is heartening and encouraging to the railroad people. Many demands are made on them, and while the railroads may seem slow in meeting all of them, it can be truthfully said that in the matter of progress they are in a position to wait till some communities try to catch up.

THE VIRGINIA HAY INDUSTRY.

An illustrated page in the Richmond Times-Dispatch of Sunday shows that hay making in Virgina has an aspect to it as beautiful as any peculiar to the haying regions of the West. Many Virginia farmers have taken to raising hay on a commercial scale, and their fields of clover, alfalfa, lucerne, timothy and the other grasses yield quite as abundantly as the Western hay fields.

Where the preparation of the land is equal to that in the West, and the extent of the fields is sufficient to utilize machinery and all the methods that count for efficiency and economy, the Virginia hay grower does not stand back for any hay raiser anywhere. The quality of the Virginia product is just as good as that produced anywhere, and in a great many cases it is far superior, while hay raising done in a proper way is just as profitable as it is in the West. Indeed, Virginia hay growers have proven to their own satisfaction that just as much or more profit can be made on hay than can be made on any other farm product grown in Virginia.

The Virginia hay growers have had such splendid results from producing hay for the market, that an expert writing to the Times-Dispatch says in latter years instead of sticking to the old system of farming, the farmers have learned that the one-money-crop idea is a delusion and a snare, and that in this era of diversified farming is found the salvation of the people engaged in agriculture.

The only difficulty with which Virginia hay growers have to contend is the native stupidity which ranks the home product at less value than the Western article. The commission merchants, for instance, price Virginia hay at from $2 to $3 a ton less than Western hay, without regard whatsoever to the quality of the Virginia product. Quite naturally, the Times-Dispatch man says whoever sells Virginia hay at less than Western hay or is willing to pay from $2 to $3 a ton more for Western hay, simply "makes a fool of himself and ought to exchange places with his ox, his ass or his billy goat," for it is the expert's opinion that "either of the three would know better and does know better."

We are fully prepared to believe that sizes up that part of it about right. Most of the North Carolina or Virginia hay we have seen is better than any Western hay we ever saw. People who have gotten it into their heads that hay is better because it comes from the West deserve to be laughed out of court.

PROGRESS ATTRACTS NEW COMERS.

The Sanford Express tells us that in the lower edge of Lee county, about two miles north of Cameron, a few thousand acres of land have been settled by Yadkin county farmers. They have splendid crops, and are materially aiding in the work of developing their adopted county.

The Yadkin farmers are only a few of those who have been attracted to Lee county, for there is not a section of the county in which there are not newcomers from Northern and Southern States and even from North Carolina counties. From wherever the new settlers come, they were attracted by the well advertised opportunities which Lee county offers to homeseekers. The lands in Lee may be no better than lands in Yadkin or any other county, but the Lee county people have demonstrated what can be done with the lands in that county. Diversified farming has made Lee a thrifty county and her good roads show that she is a progressive county. To settle in Lee and farm in Lee and live in Lee and prosper in Lee looked good to prospectors. They like the roads and were impressed with the results of farming in such a progressive county, hence they pulled up pegs and moved into Lee.

Lee is gaining in population and is developing at the expense of less progressive counties, and that is all there is to it. A county with fertile lands but with no good roads to make them available or desirable, can expect to lose population. A county with people who are not progressive, and who are not developing their county, need not expect newcomers. It is progressiveness that is doing the work for Lee, and we know a dozen Eastern North Carolina counties where it would bring them out of the kinks. It is time for them to take a lesson from Lee.

EVERY MAN TO HIS CALLING.

President Wilson has appointed two or more experienced bankers on the Federal Reserve Board, but objection has been raised to them because they are bankers. The new banking system goes into effect in about 30 days, and it is more than likely that President Wilson thought it would be a good idea to have a few bankers on the board so it would know what to do when it met. It has on it educators, scientists, agriculturaists and business men, but the President thought it might be necessary for them now and then to get a little inside information on the banking business.

The President wanted to make the new banking system a success, and whether he has appointed a sufficient number of bankers as members of the board to enable it to do its business with knowledge of the business, we do not know. It seems, however, he thought it would not be a bad idea to have on it a few men who could keep the board from considering about everything else but banking. Some Senators and Representatives do not think that is necessary, hence they hate to confirm the bankers who have been picked out as fit men for the position. The probability is that they know a few politicians who need the job and are perfectly willing to learn how to conduct a banking system in order to be of some service to the board.

Says the Jacksonville Metropolis: "There is not a citizen of Jacksonville worthy of the honor who is not boosting his city at all times." Even if a Jacksonville booster has to sleep occasionally he is wide-awake when he does not have time to take a nap. That's the reason the Florida city has so steadily developed into one of the South's most beautiful and progressive cities.

In her address to the Federation of Women's Clubs at Chicago, Miss Jane Addams claims that primitive women invented fairy tales. Modern women also invent a few, but the most incredible fairy tales which women have to listen to now are concocted by men when they are called upon for an explanation that doesn't seem to explain.

Says the Durham Herald: "Mr. Watts denounces the interview of Mr. Anderson, the Washington correspondent of the Greensboro News, and then goes on to say what Mr. Anderson said he said." The same idea clothed in slightly different language seems to be recognized in a different but equally distinctive garb.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Editor Afraid-of-the-People-of-His Party would be an appropriate title for some few North Carolina Democratic journalists.—Greensboro News.

The editors of the State are busy today packing up their grips to move on Wrightsville Beach tomorrow so as to be on hand for the State Press Convention which convenes on Wednesday. The reports are that the attendance is going to be very large this year.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A girl's idea of the most terrible calamity that could befall her would be for her beau to walk up suddenly and catch her with her hair down. A city girl of today with her hair down and her switches and transformations off looks ten times more helpless than a drowned rat with an ingrowing face.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

The boys who go down to Wrightsville Beach to hear a distinguished New York editor tell about editing will learn nothing new. The man who has successfully conducted a paper in North Carolina for 15 or 20 years—who has made the ghost walk or leave his card each Saturday; who has kept up with the patent inard house or the patent outard house; who has met the sight drafts of the pewter plate establishments; who has added new material now and then and—and still lives, can give the distinguished New York editor seven points in nine and beat his head off. The North Carolina editor who has done things in these pine woods for the past 20 years—the country editor, who has taken the 33rd degree in the Art of Living and Editing—has lived more stories than Norman Hapgood, or a dozen as versatile as he, could write in a hundred years.—Al Fairbrother's Everything.

DAN GALLOWAY.

My friend, I am sad for your going away. My brother, Knight of Pythias, in whose hospitable home I was a welcome guest, at whose table I was fed both in body and spirit, with whose family I had sweet seasons of friendship, if ever I go as I have so gladly and so often done in the past to Fairmont in this good old North State, I shall miss you most of all. I wish to express in this way my deep sense of your loss and my sympathy for your family and your brother here in our city. Such men as you are not found in every place. We who have had this privilege of knowing you are the poorer for your removal to the unknown land where we must think of you as having a welcome from those who have enjoyed your kindness here. There is plenty of room in this weary world for such lives as you lived. There is encouragement to those of us who are left here to show such unselfishness as you did and to minister to the lonely wayfarer and the brother who is far from home and friends that life may be more worth living. My wish is that some of us who remain here in homes and Pythian Halls will do as you have done and to deserve the tribute of gratitude for what you have done and tears of sorrow for your going away.

Yours in best bonds.

JAMES D. NUTT.

—A building permit was issued yesterday to Mr. R. P. McClammy for the erection of a handsome residence on the northeast corner of Front and Church streets. It will contain ten rooms and the estimated cost is $5,000. The contract has been awarded to Reville & Page, who began tearing down the old residence yesterday. When completed the residence will be occupied by Mr. McClammy and family.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Heals Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., sold hundreds of jars of Hokara, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara should give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases should be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal sized jar today at the very low price of 25 cents, and with every package goes J. Hicks Bunting's guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong." — Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.

In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

PRINCIPALS FOR NORTH & SOUTHSIDE SCHOOLS

Elected at Joint Committee Meeting Yesterday.

Mrs. Hettie Fennell Will Head Northside Faculty and Miss Eliza Meares Southside—The New Teachers Elected.

Mrs. Hettie Fennell was elected principal of the new Northside school and Miss Eliza Meares principal of the new Southside school at a joint meeting of the school committees of districts No. 1 and No. 2, held yesterday afternoon, at which time two new teachers were elected for the Northside school and three new teachers for the Southside school.

The joint meeting was held for the purpose of deciding upon the number of new teachers needed for the Hemenway, Union and Northside and the Southside schools, but the committees were advised by Mr. J. O. Carr, chairman of the Board of Education, that they had jurisdiction in their districts until the new districts were formed and new committees elected; that it would be at least 30 days or more before the board would have sufficient information as to the census to properly designate the new districts and that if there was any danger by delay in not getting the proper teachers they could proceed to elect the necessary teachers and principals for these schools, and that the new districts could be formed later.

Before going into the election of principals for the new schools, the joint committee decided that these should be chosen from the faculties of the Hemenway and Union schools, and that all qualifications being equal, the length of term of efficient service as a teacher should control.

There were a number of meritorious applications, all of which were considered at length, but following the principal adopted, Mrs. Hettie Fennell was elected principal of the Northside school by the committee of district No. 1 and Miss Eliza Meares was elected principal of Southside school by the committee of district No. 2.

Miss Louise Pridgen and Miss Eleanor Jordan were elected new teachers for the Northside school, and Misses Katherine Faison, Jessie Holmes and Emily Hammond new teachers for the Southside school.

These new principals and teachers, together with the teachers to be transferred from the Union and the Hemenway schools, will compose the faculties of the Nortside and Southside schools.

Decision relative to the transfer of teachers from the Union and Hemenway schools to the Northside and Southside schools, was not reached yesterday, though it was decided that the transfers can be made following the prefernces of the teachers themselves. Several have already expressed their preference for the Northside or Southside schools, and this will be taken into consideration in making the transfer.

PICTURES OF CREATION AT ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Will be Exhibited Free Here for Two Weeks—Mammoth Production.

Starting Wednesday night at eight o'clock the famous Bible pictures of the creation will be exhibited at the Academy of Music for two weeks. Each exhibition will be free to the public, no collections are to be taken, and no financial assistance will be asked either directly or indirectly.

This new method of Bible study is being financed by the International Bible Students' Association, of which Pastor Russell is president, who says that their only motive is to stimulate and encourage Bible study.

The photo drama of creation is composed of nearly 600 stereopticon slides and nearly two miles of film, which consumes about eight hours in its production, however the drama is divided into four parts of about two hours each.

Part one will be shown beginning Wednesday night and continuing until Saturday night, this part takes up the story of creation, from the star Nebula and leads on through Bible history to the time of Abraham, showing the seven created days in their order. In part one, science, history and the Bible are shown to be in harmony with each other, as the story of creation is dealt with from a scientific standpoint as well as historical and Biblical.

Part two will begin next Sunday, and deals with the Bible story from Abraham's time to the first advent of our Lord Jesus.

Part three is the life of Christ from the manger to the cross.

Part four leads from the day of Pentacost down to the present time, with a glimpse into the future according to the Holy Prophets.

The creation pictures have been shown in most of the large cities of the United States, and have recently been introduced in England and Germany. They are at the present showing in Spartanburg, Columbia and Sumter, and according to press reports, are favorably received wherever they are exhibited.

There will be no afternoon exhibitions, except on Saturdays and Sundays, when the big Bible pictures will be shown at 3 o'clock. All the financial obligations in connection with the Wilmington engagement have already been arranged for, therefore, no financial assistance will be asked. Each exhibition will be entirely free to the public.

Funeral of Little Daughter.

The funeral of Reba Harvell, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Harvell, whose death occurred Sunday afternoon at the family residence was conducted yesterday morning at five o'clock by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The remains accompanied by relatives were taken to Hallsboro on the 5:35 train for interment.

APPRECIATE KINDNESS.

We desire to express our sincere appreciation of the liberal assistance which has been given us by our many friends in entertaining the North Carolina Conference of the Epworth League which has just ended. Their kind co-operation contributed largely towards making the conference the great success that it was.

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT

City Clerk and Treasurer Completes Statement for Past Year—Report from Mr. Chadwick.

Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, completed his annual financial statement for the fiscal year ending March 31st, yesterday morning, and it is given below with a statement from Councilman D. N. Chadwick, Jr., in charge of the department of accounts and finance. Councilman Chadwick's supplementary statement to accompany the report is as follows:

"June 22nd, 1914.

"To the Mayor and the City Council.

"Gentlemen:—The operations of this department, being practically confined to financial matters, are fully exhibited in the report of the city clerk and treasurer, herewith submitted.

"The increase of $68,604.63 shown in gross revenue, is due mainly to the increase of the ad valorem necessary to protect indebtedness left over from the previous administration. License taxes and market rents have also shown an increase.

"The most noticeable improvement, however, other than that on real and personal property, is the water and sewerage department, where the net gain over operating cost of $13,100.73 is shown. A proper allowance for the service rendered the city, added to this revenue, makes that department more nearly self-sustaining than it has ever been before, since the city acquired ownership of it. The expenses show an increase over the previous year of $18,722.44, the larger part of which is an item of interest on loans and bonds, which loans and bonds were mainly for the purpose of extending the sewerage system.

"An excess of income over expenses of $32,734.53 is shown.

"This was anticipated, however, as means had to be provided for meeting indebtedness incurred by our predecessors. The deficit for last year has been wiped out and we have paid a note of $2,250, given in part payment for the police call; one of $3,500 given in part payment for fire automobiles; made cash payment on the incinerator of $11,023.81; and have liquidated $5,000 of the serial bonds of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, guaranteed by the city.

"There are still to be met, during the present fiscal year, a note for the police call of $2,250; one for fire autos of $3,500, and one of the notes given for the incnerator amounting to $6,000.

"This department was fortunate in securing the funds necessary to tide over the non-tax-collecting summer months from bankers outside of the city last year, to the relief of our local banking interests, and has provided for the same period for the present year at a rate of 4 7-8 per cent. This money has been deposited in our own banks and the interest collected here will practically offset the interest to be paid.

"It is my belief that with proper economy during the year and a firm adherence to the appropriations made in the budget, we will be able to make a very material reduction next year in the ad valorem rate, and also in some parts of the license tax ordinance.

"I am glad to be able to say that our ad valorem tax collections have held up well during the year the books showing that 97 per cent of the total amount has been collected. Credit for it is due to the efficiency of our tax collector and his assistant.

"In conclusion, I want to also call attention to the splendid and efficient manner in which the accounts have been handled by our city treasurer, Mr. T. D. Meares.

"Respectfully submitted,

"D. N. CHADWICK, JR.

"Councilman in Charge of Finances."

YESTERDAY HOTTEST DAY

Thermometer Was 93 Degrees but This Was Cooler Than Either Charlotte or Raleigh.

"The hottest yet."

"My! But this is some hot."

"Well, the thermometer certainly is going some today."

"Wonder how hot it is going to be in August, if this keeps up at this rate."

These and numerous other expressions, some not so mild, were to be heard on every hand yesterday. Yes, it really, truly was the hottest day yet, the thermometer tipping the beam at 93. Once before this year it hit the 91 mark, that being back in April. Even then some people threatened to emigrate but didn't, for it cooled off and hasn't been that hot again until yesterday.

But while it was hot here, it surely ought to be some relief to know that in Raleigh the thermometer reached the high water mark of 96 degrees and over in Charlotte it climbed to the same mark. No report came from Greensboro, but Sunday the thermometer there was an even 100 and it was getting hotter. Fact is, Greensboro seems to be acquiring the reputation of being the hottest city or town—whatever you please to call it—in the State.

"It sure was some hot," but there's consolation in knowing that it could have been worse.

The hot wave seems to have centered itself in this State, for nowhere else did the thermometer reach a higher mark than in Charlotte and Raleigh, except in Augusta, Ga. The maximum there was 98 degrees.

MR. D. W. GALLOWAY DEAD.

Respected Fairmont Citizen Died Yesterday Morning—Funeral.

Hundreds of friends in Wilmington and throughout the State will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Dan W. Galloway which occurred at his home in Fairmont yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock after an illness of nearly a year with aneurism of the heart. He wall well known in Wilmington, having been for years a cotton buyer for the firm of Alex. Sprunt & Son. He was born at Southport and was 58 years old.

Surviving him besides his brother, Dr. W. C. Galloway, of this city, are his wife and five children as follows: Messrs. James and George Galloway, Mrs. Rone Chambers and Misses Alice and Katherine Galloway, all of Fairmont. He is also survived by another brother, Swift G. Galloway, Esq., a well known attorney, of Snow Hill, and one sister, Miss Adele Galloway, of Goldsboro. They will have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in their deep sorrow.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at Smithfield and will be attended by Dr. W. C. Galloway and a number of friends from the city.

Mr. Galloway was a man of many Christian virtues and was a faithful member of the Methodist church. He was universally esteemed for his optimism and his sincerity. He was a member of the Masonic and Pythian orders and took a great interest in the work of these organizations. He was a useful citizen, a devoted father and husband, and in all things tried to follow those principles that make for righteousness and the betterment of humanity. In his death the community in which he lived suffers a great loss.

MAY HAVE UNION MEETING.

Committee Appointed to Plan for Joint Evangelistic Services.

In all probability there will be joint evangelistic services conducted by the churches of the city in the early fall, a committee to look into the matter having been appointed at the regular weekly meeting of the Wilmington Ministerial Association yesterday morning. The matter was discussed yesterday to some extent but it was thought best before taking any definite action to have a committee make a thorough investigation and report.

Rev. Dr. J .H. Foster, Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells and Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton were appointed members of the committee to represent the association in "Wilmington's Interlocking Interests" organization. The movement inaugurated at the court house last Thursday night to bring all the various organizations of the city into a compact body that shall work for the advancement of all the interests of the city received the hearty endorsement of the ministers.

Instead of having weekly meetings as has been the custom through the winter months it was decided to have the meetings only once a month during the summer. The time set was the first Monday in each month.

The meeting yesterday was presided over by the president, Rev .G. T. Adams, and a record of the proceedings was kept by the secretary, Mr. J. B. Huntington. There was a fine attendance.

Funeral This Afternoon.

The funeral of Henry Wise Philips, the 21-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Philips, who died at the family home, No. 1005 South Sixth street, yesterday afternoon, will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence, conducted by Rev. W. L. Rexford, pastor of Trinity Methodist church. The interment will be in Bellevue cemetery. Many friends will sympathize tenderly with the bereaved parents in their deep loss.

EDITORS WILL ARRIVE TODAY

All in Readiness for Opening Session of Press Convention at Oceanic Tomorrow Morning.

Delegates to the 47th annual convention of the North Carolina Press Association, which opens at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, will begin arriving on the different trains today, the main body, however, coming in tomorrow morning on the Seaboard train from Charlotte, arriving at 12:10 A. M. Delegates will be met at the station by committees of the local newspaper men, and will be carried to the beach in special cars.

All preparations have been made for the Press convention, and everything points to one of the most successful and enjoyable meetings in the history of the organization. In addition to the business features of the convention, a number of entertainment features have been planned by the newspaper men and citizens of Wilmington, and also by the Southport Commercial Club and the citizens of that town. Wednesday night there will be a Dutch supper at the Oceanic Hotel, given by the citizens of Wilmington, and Thursday afternoon an automobile ride over the improved roads of the county.

One of the most enjoyable features of the conventon will be the trip down the Cape Fear Friday, as the guests jointly of Capt. John W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, and the Southport Commercial Club. Dinner will be served at Southport, and stops will be made at Fort Caswell, the United States quarantine station and other points of interest, where some feature of entertainment has been arranged for.

The business sessions of the convention will be held in the convention hall at the Oceanic Hotel. The hall and lobby of the hotel will be handsomely and elaborately decorated for the occasion. The contract for the decorations has been awarded by the decorations committee, of which Mr. Wm. E. Lawson is the chairman, to the C. W. Polvogt Company, and Mr. Polvogt will personally superintend the work, and see that the decorations are all they should be.

ARCANIAN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED LAST NIGHT

Joint Meeting of Carolina and Cornelius Harnett Councils.

In celebration of the 37th anniversary of the founding of the order, a joint meeting of Carolina and Cornelius Harnett Councils, Royal Arcanum, was held last evening, with a large attendance of members. The celebration was in the form of a regular meeting, with an informal social session afterwards, which proved to be most delightful.

During the evening, a number of short talks were made by different officers and members. Mr. Samuel Brinson, of Newbern, Supreme Guide of the Supreme Council, Royal Arcanum, who was in the city, was present and told of the recent session of the Supreme Council in New York, which he attended. During his talk he referred especially to the new insurance rates established by the Supreme Council and pointed out that these rates should have the effect of largely increasing the already very large membership of the order.

Talks were also made by Grand Secretary Henry E. Bonitz, and by Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, Grand Chaplain.

Delicious refreshments brought to a close a very enjoyable meeting.

"FIRST COTTON BLOOMS."

Several Received Yesterday—Crop News is Encouraging.

The Star on yesterday received three additional "first cotton blooms" from as many different sections of Eastern Carolina and with each most encouraging news of the crop prospect. Mr. D. E. Boney, of Wallace, sends a well-developed bloom which was open on the 21st. The variety of this cotton is known as the Cleveland Big Bell and Mr. Boney has 89 acres of it, which is blooming nicely now.

Mr. D. R. Ormsby, of Rocky Point, sends a well-developed bloom plucked from 12 acres of fine staple which he has growing there. Also Mr. W. W. Usher, of Chadbourn, encloses a bloom plucked from one of his fields of 25 acres on Sunday. Old Columbus is not behind other sections and Mr. Usher says on his field of 25 acres that he has spent but $10.50 for hoeing and that the hoeing is practically over with for this crop. Columbus is fast forging to the front as a cotton county, as well as a strawberry section while tobacco is also grown successfully there.

—Mr. Chas. J. Becker, local agent for the Clyde Line, returned Saturday night from Charleston, S. C., where he spent several days on business.

How To Banish Wrinkles Quickly

If your face is disfigured with wrinkles, no matter what the cause, you can quickly dispel every line, even the most obstinate, by using a simple, home-made wash lotion. Merely dissolve an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel—inexpensive ingredients found in any drug store. Bathe the face in this and—presto!—you scarcely believe your own eyes when you look into your mirror and behold the marvelous transformation!

The remarkable astringent action of the saxolite so tightens the skin, wrinkles are literally pressed out. Best of all, this result is not purely temporary, for the lotion also has a healthful tonic action, which tends to strengthen and tone up the weakened tissue, and added benefit may be expected with continued use. Use this once a day for awhile; it cannot injure the most delicate skin, the treatment itself leaves no trace—no one guesses the secret of your increasing youthful appearance.

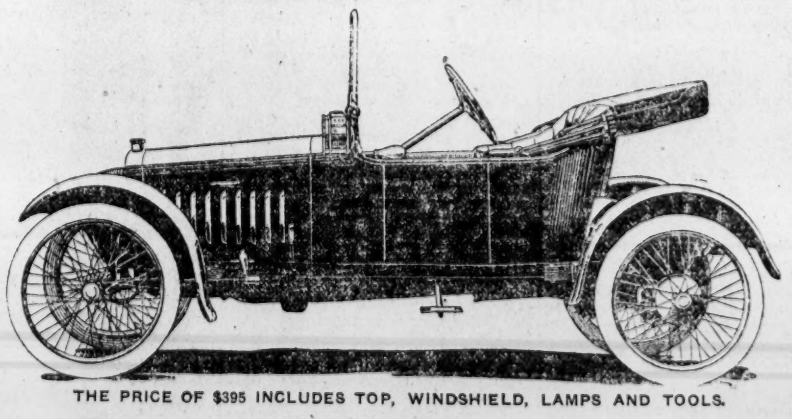
SAXON $395



THE PRICE OF $395 INCLUDES TOP, WINDSHIELD, LAMPS AND TOOLS.

Come See the Saxon
They Will Be Here Thursday or Friday

Thousands have said they would buy an automobile when one would be built with standard features to sell at a price below $400.

Are you among them? If so, it will pay you to examine the Saxon. It will pay you in first cost. It will pay you in operation and maintenance cost.

The Saxon is a light car—light yet staunch and sparing on tires and fuel. Equally important, it is backed by an organization of experienced automobile men, well financed and ably managed—a guarantee of the car itself.

In the Saxon are embodied features of standard motor car practice: Standard tread, 4-cylinder, 15 horsepower Continental motor of special Saxon design, 96-inch wheelbase, left drive with center control, streamline body, wire wheels, tapered bonnet, shaft drive. It is a good car and a good-looking one.

Come to our salesrooms and arrange for a demonstration.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION GIVEN IN FAYETTEVILLE.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 22.—Beautiful as well as effective were the cut flowers and potted plants at the reception given by Mrs. Levi Anderson and Mrs. James Samuel Hall Thursday afternoon.

Their guests of honor were Mrs. Hugh Crawford Chedester, of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Joel Spurgeon Snyder, of this city. Little Misses Frances Green and Eloise Synder received the cards at the front door. The guests were then introduced to those receiving by Miss Roxie Dodd and Mrs. A. M. Huggins. Those receiving with the hostess were Miss John A. Oates and Mrs. Thomas Clarence Johnson, of Lumberton. The decorations for this—the reception room—were beautiful blue hydrangeas, roses and plumosa ferns.

Mrs. Thomas M. Green and Mrs. Q. K. Nimocks then escorted the guests in the next room, where delicious mint, tea and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Bernard B. Forbes and Misses Lydia Holland and Marie Pemberton. Sweet peas, pinks and pink roses were the graceful decorations here.

Mrs. John West and Mrs. William E. Kindley invited the guests into the dining room. This room was lovely, in a soft glow fro myellow shaded lights and candles, and further carried out in the table decorations of golden alamanda, and the ice courses. Here presided Mrs. W. F. Clayton and Mrs. W. H. Marsh, assisted by Misses Louise Holland, Gertrude Marsh, Ruth Holland, Luicel Culbreth and Minnie Holland.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL EVENT AT CHADBOURN.

Chadbourn, N. C., June 22.—One of the most delightful entertainments of the season was given by Mrs. J. W. Martin Saturday evening in honor of her charming guest and cousin, Mrs. Jenkins, of Tarboro. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and delicious refreshments were served. In an alcove outside the dining room door was the punch bowl over which little Miss Roland Martin presided. Thence the guests passed into the dining room where ice cream and cake were served. Music was furnished by Mrs. J. A. Brown and Miss Mae Dee Wooten. Mrs. Martin had each guest register her name, and the list shows how many States were represented in the assemblage and how harmonious people from the North, South, East and West live here in perfect unison.

Those present were: Mrs. S. W. Johnston, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. J. J. Parish, Iowa, now of Florida; Mrs. B. K. Moore, Iowa; Mrs. C. R. Leonhart, Michigan; Mrs. Woodard, Michigan; Mrs. M. T. Lowe; Mrs. O. M. Powers, Dunn, N. C.; Mrs. J. W. Powers, Linden, Texas; Mrs. J. A. Brown, Sanford, N. C.; Mrs. E. J. Britt, Cerro Gordo, N. C.; Mrs. D. C. Clark, Chadbourn; Mrs. Jim Jenkins, Tarboro; Mrs. L. L. Lambe, Siler City; Mrs. D. C. Whitted, Wilmington; Mrs. J. C. Lewis, Florence, S. C.; Mrs. C. D. Koonce, Cronly, N. C.; Mrs. J. B. Bardin, Litwalton, Va.; Mrs. G. H. Boughner, Clarke Neb.; Mrs. S. M. Withers, Davidson, N. C.; Mrs. H. W. Whitney, Pittsfield, Ill.; Mrs. F. T. Wooten, Point Caswell, N. C.; Mrs. Lena McDonald, Fayetteville; Mrs. M. A. Fryar, Raleigh; Miss Sadie Louise Koons, Danville, Penn.; Miss Mae Dee Wooten, Chadbourn; Mrs. T. C. Clute, Fayetteville; Mrs. R. E. L. Brown, Whiteville.

Mrs. Martin proved herself a most charming hostess indeed and each guest will long remember the happy hours spent in her home. Mr. and Mrs. Martin recently moved here from Tarboro, N. C., and have made many friends in this community. Mrs. Jenkins leaves Wednesday for her home.

Wrightsville Beach

Messrs. W. G. Thompson and David T. E. Hughes, of Charlotte, are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thomson, Mr. P. G. Walton and Mrs. A. D. Wilson, of Hamlet, were registered at the Seashore Hotel yesterday.

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were J. W. Blackmer, Salisbury, and H. E. Wilkinson and D. H. Hamley, of Atlanta, Ga.

Included in the week-end guests at the Hanover Inn were Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Jackson, Chicago, Ill., and R. E. Whitaker, Raleigh.

Mr. R. R. Bradley, circulation manager of the Atlanta Semi-Weekly Journal, and Mrs. Bradley, are spending some time on the beach, guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Two dancing exhibitions were given at Lumina last evening by Mr. West and Miss Chandler. The first was an American tango, originated by Mr. West, and the second a hesitation waltz.

Last evening witnessed the first of the motion picture exhibitions which will be given at Lumina each week night for the remainder of the season. Three reels were shown, and enjoyed by quite a large audience.

Three reels of moving pictures will be shown at the moving picture exhibition at Lumina tonight. The programme includes "Maritza" a two-reel story of the Balkan War, and a very interesting picture dealing with the Lake Asphalt Industry.

Messrs. W. C. Carrington, E. I. Bugg, L. H. Cherry, D. T. E. Hughes, and Searcy were members of a fishing party that went out yesterday morning in the launch Virgie May. They caught a fine string of pig fish with a few sheephead thrown in for good measure.

The interior of the cottage at the Hammocks, which will be occupied by the Y. M. C. A. Beach Club has been re-painted and thoroughly renovated. The furniture will be moved in this week and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by the latter part of the week.

The first of the children's souvenir dances of the season at Lumina last evening was very largely attended, there being 375 children in the grand march. The little folk enjoyed their innings on the floor very much, and were quite elated over the attractive souvenirs distributed.

Mr. A. J. Clayton, of Carlotta, had splendid luck fishing yesterday near the wreck of Carlotta. He made the trip out in Capt. Wells' staunch little launch Louise. Not deigning to fool with small fish he landed nine sheephead, seven oyster fish, and tea brim. The entire string weighed nearly a hundred pounds, all caught by Mr. Chapman himself.

Friends of Mr. H. H. Ford, of the United States engineer office, will be glad to learn that his father, Dr. C. T. Ford, of Mullins, S. C., has improved sufficiently from his recent illness to be moved to Wrightsville Beach. Accompanied by his son, Mr. T. B. Ford of Amory, Miss., and daughter, Mrs. George W. Taylor, of Dallas, Texas, together with Miss Hernholm, a trained nurse, of Charleston, S. C., Dr. Ford arrived yesterday afternoon. They are staying at Mrs. Crabb's cottage, near Station No. 1.

Mr. C. C. Rhame, the clever representative of the Mergenthaler Linotype Co., in this territory, is here for the meeting of the State Press Association and will be cordially welcomed by many acquaintances among the craft in this State. He will be joined ed later in the session of the State association by Mr. Walter H. Savory, Southern representative of the company with headquarters in Washington, D. C. The Mergenthaler company will not have an exhibit at the meeting of the association this year, but any publishers interested in typesetting machine equipment for their offices may see a dozen or more linotypes in actual service in Wilmington and any will be cordially welcomed in The Star office at any time, where Mr. Rhame may be communicated with day or night. The linotype has become so standard in most newspaper offices now that exhibitions are hardly necessary any more than the United States should exhibit its stock of postage stamps and post cards or that the salesman for a locomotive works should carry around with him an assortment of his wares.

TIDE FLOATS CHEROKEE

Handsome Clyde Line Steamer Was Aground in Cape Fear for 24 Hours—Collision Avoided.

After being aground for 24 hours in the Cape Fear river, eight miles below Wilmington, the handsome Clyde Line steamer Cherokee was floated last night at 7 o'clock with the assistance of several tugs and lighters. She reached her dock here shortly afterwards and will be able to leave on her regular trip to Georgetown this afternoon. An attempt was made yesterday morning to float the vessel at high tide, but was unsuccessful.

The vessel was coming up the river on a flood tide shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday night. Near the mouth of Town Creek the government dredge Hercules is stationed nearly in the center of the river channel. When the pilot of the Cherokee shoved the rudder to the right on account of the flood tide the vessel failed to respond quickly and seeing that he was sure to ram the dredge amidships unless he changed her course, he ran the ship to the left and stuck her hard and fast in the mud. He deliberately ran the ship aground, it was stated, in order to avoid what was almost sure to be a fatal collision. As it was, there was no damage except a delay of 24 hours and the expense of lightering about 150 tons of the cargo.

The tug Castor with Capt. Sanders in charge and the tug Gladiator, Capt. Dosher, went to the assistance of the distressed vessel yesterday morning and attempted to pull her off at high tide, but unsuccessfully.

There were ten passengers on board the ship and most of these remained until the ship came up last night. Several were brought up yesterday morning in the tug Castor. None of them were hurt in the slightest and rather enjoyed the unique experience.

BOOK BY DR. SMOOT.

Former Pastor of Grace Church Now an Author.

The many friends here of Rev. Dr. T. A. Smoot, formerly pastor of Grace Methodist church, and now pastor of Epworth Methodist church, Norfolk, Va., will learn with pleasurable interest that he is the author of "The Standard of Pitch in Religion," a book just off the press of Funk & Wagnalls, the well known New York publishing house.

The following relative to Dr. Smoot's book is from the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch:

"The many friends of Rev. Thomas Arthur Smoot, D. D., of Epworth Methodist church, Norfolk, will be interested in knowing that a book from his pen has just come from the presses of the great publishing house of Funk & Wagnalls, New York, the title of which is "The Standard of Pitch in Religion," and as Dr. Smoot is widely known, especially in Virginia and North Carolina, for his ripe scholarship and broad culture—both of which must needs be reflected in any product of his pen—this book is likely to have a large reading.

"Its unusual title is apt to command attention, and promise of large benefit to the reader is to be found in its underlying thought, viz: The universe a great harmony. Myriads of temperaments, or voice. These to be attuned so that their volume of sound shall make no discord. The first requisite—a basal tone; a standard of pitch. To this each voice or life must be attuned. This fundamental tone is found in Jesus, who became the standard of pitch for all time for all men as pertains to morals and religion.

"Idealism is in these pages; with vital faith, and the springs of living—which look to spirit, character and soul, with fair perfection as the end and goal.

"A notable feature of this book is its use of simplified spelling, to some extent, which will not fail to attract the attention of the reader."

PIGEONS FARED BADLY.

One of Carrier Birds Liberated in Wilmington Found in Charlotte.

Postmaster H. McL. Green received a letter yesterday from Miss Maud Little, of Charlotte, stating that she had at her home one of the carrier pigeons liberated in Wilmington several weeks ago. There were six in the lot and they were sent here by Mr. G. W. Beddell, of Port Carbon, Pa. Five of them reached their destination safely but the other one seems to have strayed off.

While they were liberated here on Sunday morning it took them quite a little while to make the journey, one of them reaching its destination on Tuesday morning, while the other four did not get there until Thursday morning.

Miss Little stated in her letter to Mr. Green that the pigeon at her home had been wounded. A letter from Mr. Beddell states that the others were well tired out from their flight. It is probable that somebody shot into the covey and caused them to be scattered.

Mr. Beddell is quite a pigeon fancier and while the first test did not turn out as well as he had expected, he will make another effort. He has written Mr. Green that he will send another covey of birds to be liberated here on the morning of July 4th. Mr. Biddell also states that he will at the same time send some birds to Richmond, Va.

His object evidently is to find which of the birds in his possession are best fitted for carrier service. The birds will be liberated by Mr. Green on the postoffice lawn in the rear of the postoffice building.

RAILROADS NOT LIABLE.

For Injury to Inter-State Employes Riding on Passes.

Washington, June 22.—Railroads are not liable for injury to Inter-State employes or members of their families riding on passes which contain stipulations that the passenger assumes all risks while being so transported. The Supreme Court today so decided and held that a pass is not to be regarded as part of the compensation for which the employe works, but is in reality free and subject to any conditions the railroad may impose.

COTTON MARKET STEADIER

Comparative Moderate Demand Proved Sufficient to Send Prices Higher Than Usual.

New York, June 22.—The cotton market was steadier today. After the break of about $3.50 per bale from the high records established at the beginning of the month there appeared to be less cotton for sale and comparatively moderate demand proved sufficient to send prices higher. The close was firm at a net advance of 4 to 7 points on the old crop and of 12 to 13 points on the new crop deliveries.

Liverpool was lower than due and the official cables reported that spot cotton was pressing for sale. The local market opened steady at a decline of 7 points to an advance of two points w.... the near months relatively easy in sympathy with the English showing. There appeared to be some selling orders carried over from Saturday's break, but leading spot interests were again good buyers of July and the market soon turned firmer. Without any apparent change in the general character of the news prices sold about 6 to 10 points net higher in the late trading and closed withi na point or two of the best.

Cotton futures closed firm.

DECISION EFFECTS STOCKS

All Railroad Stocks Join Upward Movement Following Decision In Land Title Case.

New York, June 22.—Speculation in the stock market was dull during the morning, with a slow downward movement. The course of the market was changed abruptly, however, by the decree of the United States Supreme court, favoring the title claims of the Southern Pacific Railroad to California oil lands. The ruling caused a rush of buying orders, and the quotation of the stock mounted swiftly. At the close the price was 97 3-4 gain or more than three points.

The manner in which Southern Pacific responded to the decision attracted to the strong position of the general market, causing covering of shorts and speculative buying. Prices of nearly all the leading railway and industrial shares joined in an upward movement.

At the close small net advances were general.

In the early trading chief interest lay in the action of the Rock Island securities. The stimulating effect on the bonds of the re-organization plan, causing the upturn of Saturday, had worn off and quotations were lower all around.

The declining tendency of foreign exchange was checked, the quotation for demand sterling advancing about 25 points. Engagement of $1,500,000 more gold for export was announced. It was the opinion of banks, however, that the outflow of gold was nearing its end.

Trading in bonds was unusually heavy with particular activity in Rock Island and Southern Pacific issues. The market was irregular. Chicago and Indiana Coal Railway 5s which slumped last week from 88 to 61, broke further today to 45. Total sales of bonds par value $4,028,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

HELPLESS AS BACY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the womar's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them.".

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

authority from time to time 'to prescribe the extent to which such designated common carrier may be relieved from the operation of this section.'

"From the failure to insert any word in the amendment tending to exclude the operation of competition as adequate under proper circumstances to justify the awarding of relief from the long and short clause and there being nothing which minimizes or changes the application of the preferences and discriminations clauses of the second and third sections, it follows that in substances the amendment intrinsically states no new rule or principle but simply shifts the powers conferred by the sectinon as it originally stood; that is, it takes from the carriers the deposit of public power previously lodged in them and vests it in the commission as a primary instead of a reviewing function.

DECLINED TO ISSUE AN INJUNCTION.

Restraining Treasury Department from Granting Sugar Discount.

Washington, June 22.—The Supreme Court today declined to issue an injunction restraining the Treasury Department from granting Cuban sugar the 20 per cent differential provided by treaty, in addition to the new reduced rates of the tariff law. The merits of the case, brought by the State of Louisiana, were not passed on, however, and the decision did not preclude action in the customs court.

Louisiana, as a planter of sugar cane on its convict farm, sought the injunction. The State's attorneys contended that the 25 per cent reduction in sugar rate became effective in March under the Underwood law wiped out the differential. Attorney General McReynolds advised Secretary McAdoo that the differential provided by the Cuban reciprocity treaty still prevailed despite the reduction.

The Supreme Court did not pass on that, but declined the injunction on the ground that the power of the Secretary of the Treasury was discretionary and not ministerial and that it would not instruct him how to proceed.

SENATOR NEWLANDS URGES CREATION OF COMMISSION.

To Control Federal Activity in Waterway Improvements.

Washington, June 22.—Creation of a commission with broad authority to control Federal activty in waterway improvement was proposed today in an amendment to the pending rivers and harbors appropriation bill by Senator Newlands. This plan to regulate the expenditure of millions taken from the National treasury every year was drafted by a cabinet committee and approved by the President.

Under the amendment a commission, comprising the secretaries of war, interior, agriculture and commerce, two senators and two representatives, would be given authority to investigate all questions relating to waterways.

Senator Newlands announced the amendment was a step toward his proposal for a government commission in charge of river and harbor improvement with appropriation ultimately aggregating $600,000,000 annually.

ADJOURNED UNTIL OCTOBER.

Supreme Court Hands Down Five Hundred and Ninety-one Decisions.

Washington, June 22.—The Supreme court today adjourned until October after deciding the inter-mountain rate case, the California oil land grant case, the Eastern States Retail Lumber Dealers sut, and several other important cases pending for many months.

Just 14 cases in which arguments had been made were left undecided. These include cases involving the constitutionality of the "Grandfather Clauses," limiting the right of negroes to vote in Oklahoma and Annapolis, Md.; the mid-Western land case, involving the validity of President Taft's withdrawal of oil lands from entry; the Nashville grain reshipping case; and the Henry case involving the right of Congress to compel individuals to testify before investigating committees.

The court during the term disposed of more cases than in any year since 1890. Five hundred and ninety-two decisions were handed down.

WILSON HEARTILY APPROVES.

Suggestion to Name Culebra Cut After David DuB. Gaillard.

Washington, June 22.—A proposal to honor the late Col. David DuB. Gaillard, who died from an illness aggravated by overwork on the Panama canal, by naming Culebra Cut after him, was laid before President Wilson today by Representative Finley, of South Carolina. Mr. Finley brought with him a resolution adopted by the Federation of Women's Clubs of South Carolina, proposing the change. The South Carolina Congressman said the suggestion had met with the hearty approval of the President.

Mr. Finley also invited the President to attend the 150th anniversary of the founding of the town of Cheraw, S. C., on July 8th. The President took the invitation under advisement.

PLANS FAIL TO MATERIALIZE.

Striking Employes and Westinghouse Companies Still at Odds.

Pittsburg, June 22.—Plans of union leaders to abondon individual meetings with officers of the four large Westinghouse plants affected by a strike of 12,000 men and to hold a joint conference to settle the dispute failed to materialize today when Westinghouse officials declared each of the companies should settle its own troulies.

Patrick Gilday and C. W. Mills, appointed as conciliators by Secretary Wilson, visited strike headquarters today. They were informed by the strike leaders that their services were not desired at this time. Later they were told if conditions changed the men would be pleased to have them take up the dispute and would send for them.

APPEAL TO THE IRISH.

Volunteers to Strengthen Themselves for Coming Struggle.

Philadelphia, June 22.—An appeal to strengthen the Irish volunteers and "enable them to confront adequately this audacious attempt of the British aristocracy and an Irish minority to put down by force the liberties of the Irish people," was received tonight by Michael J. Ryan, president of the United Irish League of America, in a cablegram from John Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalist party. The cablegram was sent from London.

WILL PUBLISH CORRESPONDENCE

Between Japan and United States Over California Alien Law.

Washington, June 22.—Secretary Bryan announced today that by arrangement with the Japanese ambassador correspondence on the California alien land ownership act would be given to the press for publication simultaneously in Japan and the United States Friday.

It was pointed out as significant today that since the last note from Japan the arbitration treaty between the United States and Japan which had lapsed by limitation, has been renewed. Some time ago Ambassador Guthrie was approached with a suggestion by the Japanese foreign office, that as the issue between the United States and Japan in the California land case involved the construction of a treaty it was eminently suitable for adjustment by arbitration before The Hague. At that time the arbitration treaty between the two countries was not then in effect.

HOUSE GOES ON RECORD.

Again as Favoring Exemption of Labor Unions From Prosecution.

Washington, June 22.—The House tonight again went on record for exempting labor unions from prosecution under the anti-trust laws. A provision in the sundry civil appropriation bill appropriating $300,000 for enforcement of the ant-trust laws was adopted after a sharp political debate over the provision exempting labor and agricultural organizations.

Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, who sought to have the provision stricken out, quoted former President Roosevelt as opposing such legislation, and became involved in a heated argument with Representative Bryan, of Washington, and other Progressives. Mr. Bryan said he resented the "attempts of a standpatter to slur Mr. Roosevelt."

FUNERAL OF MR. G. W. COOPER.

Well Known Citizen of Faison Passes Away.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., June 22.—The funeral services of Mr. G. W. Cooper, of Faison, was conducted yesterday afternoon. The deceased was taken from his home to the Rocky Mount Sanitarium for an operation on Saturday but died before the operation could be performed. He was 60 years of age, and had been in the rural delivery service of the Postoffice Department for a long number of years being the oldest carrier in the Faison office. He was well known throughout this section of the State, and well loved for his geniality and good humor. He is survived by his wife and several children, all of whom are grown.

ENORMOUS PRICES PAID

By American Can Company for Competitors' Plants, is Testimony.

Baltimore, June 22.—Enormous prices were paid by the American Can Company to several Baltimore can makers for their plants, according to testimony today at the hearing here before Examiner Edward Hacker, in the Federal suit asking dissolution of the American Can Company.

John Black, of the Black & Krebs, testified that about $750,000 was paid for the Baltimore and Indianapolis factories of that concern. They were said to be worth from $25,000 to $30,000 each. William Fait was paid $200,000 for his plant, the machinery being worth about $18,000. Others gave similar testimony. All the firms entered into an agreement not to engage in making cans for 15 years.

The hearing probably will last more than a week.

MILLION DOLLAR ENDOWMENT.

Fund and Establishment of Permanent Home for College of Surgery.

Philadelphia, June 22.—A million dollar endowment fund and the establishment of a permanent home for the college in Washington, D. C., were decided on at a meeting of officers and regents of the American College of Surgeons here today. It was decided that after the fall meeting in Baltimore candidates for membership must undergo several months close observation and their work will have to be approved in 50 consecutive cases of surgery before they can be admitted.

Fellowships were conferred on 1,032 surgeons at the second convocation of the college held here tonight. Honorary degrees were conferred on Drs. Thomas A. Emmitt, of New York; Edmond Souchon, New Orleans, and Francis J. Sheppard, Montreal.

EIGHT PERSONS DROWNED.

Late Last Night When Launch Capsized in Canal.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 21.—Eight persons, most of them women and children, were drowned in the Oswego canal near Onondaga Lake, late tonight, when a passenger launch plying between Mud Lock and Liverpool struck a stump and capsized.

The body of a Miss Welch and that of an unidentified child were recovered half an hour after the tragedy. At least three men and one woman swam to safety to the banks of the canal, less than 50 feet away. Mrs. Louis Dainer, wife of the owner of the boat, reached shore, but is in a serious condition. The accident occurred shortly before midnight.

According to Dainer, ten passengers were aboard when he started on his trip through the canal to Liver pool.

CALDERON TO WASHINGTON.

Denies That He Will be Carranza's Representative at Niagara Falls.

New Orleans, June 22.—Fernando Iglesias Calderon, released from prison when the American troops occupied Vera Cruz, left here tonight for Washington, where he stated he was going on a mission for the Liberal party of Mexico, of which he is the leader.

Immediately following Mr. Calderon's release from San Juan de Ulloa, he hastened to Northern Mexico, where he conferred with Carranza. In a statement tonight he denied that he was going to the American capital as Carranza's representative, but admitted that he expected to confer with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan and later might visit Niagara Falls, where the mediation conference is now in progress.

Calderon has been mentioned as Carranza's choice for provisional President of Mexico.

Chicago, June 21.—Hundreds of delegates arrived today for the International Sunday School Convention which will begin tomorrow. Fred B. Smith, originator of the Men and Religion Forward Movement; Dr. F. B. Meyer, of London; Booker T. Washington, Rev. Takeshi Ukai, and Rev. H. Kawasume, both of Tokio, will speak before the convention.

BIG OIL TANK AFLAME IN PENNSYLVANIA TOWN

Twenty Persons Injured—Eight Houses Burned—Six Others Dynamited.

Washington, Pa., June 22.—Twenty persons were injured, one seriously; eight houses destroyed by fire and six others dynamited today after lightning set fire to a tank containing 25,000 barrels of oil at Meadowlands, near here. Efforts to extinguish the oil fire have been futile. A partial collapse of the tank caused the burning oil to spread over a wide territory. Upwards of 2,000 volunteers were fighting the fire tonight and it was believed further danger had passed.

A stream of burning oil swept towards 50 houses belonging to the United Coal Company, late today and within a few minutes eight of the structures were burned to the ground. While six of the other houses were being dynamited, a large force of men succeeded in turning the oil in another direction. Another stream rushed for a hill side where many persons had gathered to witness the fire. In a scramble to escape 20 persons were trampled upon.

Late tonight it was feared another large tank near the burning one was in danger of becoming overheated and exploding. If the tank were to explode Meadowlands probably will be wiped out by the conflagration that would follow.

EXPECT ATTACK ON ZACATECAS IN 24 HOURS.

Skirmishes Reported North of City Yesterday—Congress Convenes.

Mexico City, June 22.—Extraordinary session of Congress opened today. The Japanese minister Minelchero Adachi, and the flag lieutenant of the urciser Idzumo, paid a visit of courtesy to President Huerta and the minister of foreign affairs, war and the interior today.

It is reported that several skirmishes took place north of Zacatecas today. A general attack on the town by the Constitutionalists is expected to begin within 24 hours.

Federal troops will leave Quadalajara by way of Ameca tomorrow to repair and protect the railroad to Manzanillo and drive Constitutionalists out of that territory. A column later will proceed in the direction of Tepic.

CHAUTAUQUA WEEK AT ELIZABETH CITY.

Interesting and Varied Programme of Speakers and Entertainers.

Elizabeth City, N. C., June 22.—The Elizabeth City Chautauqua opened Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a big tent, Road and Church streets, under the direction of Dr. A. B. Harmon, superintendent of the association. The opening performance was a very satisfactory one to both the audience and the promoters of the local association.

The exercises held Sunday afternoon were of a sacred nature and were free. The programme consisted of a sacred concert by the McKimmie Operatic Company and an address by Dr. Harmon.

DAY IN CONGRESS.

Doings in Brief of Our National Legislators in Washington.

Senate:

Met at noon.

Banking committee began consideration of President Wilson's nomination to the Federal Reserve Board.

Smith resolution for investigation in connection with the proposed Nicaraguan treaty presented in executive session.

Adjourned at 5:20 P. M. to noon Tuesday.

House:

Met at noon.

Debate was resumed on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill.

Adjourned at 10:40 P. M. to 11 A. M. Tuesday.

TELEGRAM OF GREETING.

From President Wilson to Delegates to Rotary Clubs Convention.

Houston, Tex., June 22.—A telegram of greeting from President Wilson to the delegates of the Fifth Annual convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, now in session here, was one of many features of the first session today.

Satisfactory report of the financial condition of the association was made. There are now 122 affiliated clubs, of which the local club, with a membership of 350, is the largest.

Steubenville, O., June 22.—Mayor George Nell, of Dillonvale, O., today called on Sheriff W. A. Huscroft, for deputies to guard his court tomorrow when Joseph Ettor, Industrial Worker of the World leader, will be given a hearing on charges of inciting to riot and assault on Clyde Morrow, a coal mine superintendent.

Washington, June 22.—The trade commission bill failed to reach the Senate floor today because the Indian appropriation bill occupied the entire session. Chairman Newlands, of the Inter-State Commerce committee, has prepared his report on this bill, the first of the anti-trust trio, and hopes to present it tomorrow.

Sandusky, Ohio, June 22.—Forty persons were injured, several probably fatally when a car on the Lake Shore Electric Railroad collided with a work train standing on a siding near here late today.

Philadelphia, June 22.—The battleship Kansas sailed today for Vera Cruz with 300 men, to take the place of men now at Vera Cruz, whose terms of enlistment have expired.

The vessel will coal at Hampton Roads.

A-K SALVE.

Unexcelled for Eczema.
